Dear reader: Don't forget that this is the time of year that many subscriptions to the Mirror become due, and don't forget that we will appreciate payment of same. The price of a subscription to the Mirror does not mean so much to you, but many such subscriptions mean a great deal to us, and we will thank you to call on us at once and have your subscription set up a notch. The yellow label on your paper will tell you when your subscription is paid to. So please look it up, and if you have not already had your subscription extended, do so at once, either by mail or by calling at the Mirror office.

Your Little Ad and His Big One

THE national advertiser whose goods you carry wants to help you move those goods. So he advertises them—spends lots of money to do it.

And thus he advertises your place of business.

You see his ad in the national magazines. If you ask him he'll probably send you advance proofs and schedules, so you can tie up with him in your local advertising.

Do you see? The same week he is telling your customers about your goods you can be doing the same thing in your local paper.

Cultivate your local editor. You need his columns to sell your merchandise.
